HONGKONG, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1906.

THE WHAMPOA RAILWAY.

Beyond a cursory perusal of the speeches delivered at the annual dinner of the China Association in London, it is probable that little notice has been given to the statements made on that occasion. At the same time, there are references to affairs affecting Hongkong which can scarcely be passed unnoticed. We allude more particularly to the reference to the Canton and Whampoa Railway line—a project which we have submitted not only to the people of this Colony, but to people abroad. Mr. Gundry, the Chairman on that occasion, remarked that "A project was carried far on paper, for a purely Chinese line from Canton to Amoy, but it got no further than paper, and I doubt if getting further, for the reason which thwarts all financial combination in China, viz., that Chinese capitalists will not trust their money in any enterprise which officials can control." If Mr. Gundry had been in China, and could understand the importance which we attach to the con-struction of that line, he would sing a far different tune. He speaks about the line being on "paper." As a matter of fact the line is in actual construction now, a fact which should be remembered against the construction of the Kowloon-Canton railway. It is suggested that the line in question is run by private enterprise; but it occurs to us that Mr. Chang is an erstwhile Minister who is not inclined to admit at the present moment, in the view of the world, the importance of being the originator. The capital for this railway—not a large one by any means—was readily forthcoming.
It was well known that, while Viceroy Shun was in power, he strenuously upheld the principle of China for the Chinese; in fact, he animated nationalism for the first time.
Of this successor Chow Fu, no one will gainsay the fact that he is an administrator of probity, whose common sense and sound judgment will allow him to understand not only the affairs of his compatriots, but also of those foreigners who endeavour to guide the destinies of the great Middle Kingdom. The very fact that such men as Shun and Chow Fu are at the helm, all goes well for China, for it is impossible for these gentlemen to squander the money which they have received for other purposes.
We should not wonder if, before the members of the China Association meet again at their annual convivial gathering next year, the announcement will be made from the chair that the construction work on this short line of railway—and it does not augur too well for Hongkong—will have advanced to a stage that will merit far more than a passing allusion like that of the speech which was delivered at the last annual meeting of the China Association.INSANITARY TYPHOON ANCHORAGE.Among the improvements which the Hongkong Telegraph has attempted to secure, none appealed to the Seafarers so much as the attempt to cleanse the ejector from the abattoir.
Anybody who knows a seaman, knows perfectly well that he is the least complaining individual in the world, but there are others concerned than the genial gentlemen of the sea, for our own health and our own well-being is concerned in this matter. No one strolling down the front has omitted to observe the intensely odorous fumes which apparently come from the sewage matter which is allowed to flow into the sea. But this is not the only place in Hongkong where insanitary conditions prevail. Residents at East Point know very well the smells, to call them by no other name, which arise from what is popularly known as the Typhoon Anchorage. The Sanitary authorities will probably discover that these matters are not entirely conducive to the health of the inhabitants of the neighbourhood. In the matter of doing good to the community, the Chinese members of the Sanitary Board have done their best, but it is impossible for them to see everything.
It is to be hoped that what is undoubtedly a public nuisance will be remedied in the very shortest time possible.

36, Cross Street, was arraigned before Mr. T.
Sercombe, Smith, at the Police Court, this morning, charged with stealing a brass screw, valued at $5, the property of the chief engineer of the steamer Yangmoo Gensen, yesterday.
His Worship, after hearing evidence, convicted accused and sentenced him to three weeks, hard labour.A YOUTH named Chan Wing, styling himself a cook, was charged before Mr. Sercombe Smith, at the Police Court, this morning, with stealing a mirror from a furniture dealer's shop in Wellington Street, yesterday afternoon. The lad, it appears, went in presumably to purchase something and on leaving the shop attempted to smuggle out the mirror. Accused was sent to gaol for three weeks.The promoters of the Kishigawa Cement Company held a meeting at Sakai on the 29th ultimo, and adopted a resolution, fixing the capital at ¥700,000 in 14,000 shares, of which 6,000 would be taken up by the promoters, 1,400 offered to the supporters, and 4,000 placed on the public market. The new company is to purchase a cement factory on the Kishigawa now conducted by Mr. Kitamura which will be largely extended.THE Hitschmann, built at the Mitsui Bishi day next for Yokohama, to take the place of the Iyo-maru on the European line, the latter steamer being transferred to the Seattle service.By kind permission of Lieut.-Col. W. Scott

Regimental Marches.
God bless the Prince of Wales.
God Save the King.It is reported that the Japanese merchants of Yokohama have combined for the purpose of sending abroad a large steamer fitted up as an museum of Japanese productions and manufactures. The association is on a very considerable scale and a capital of 50 million yen is spoken of. It is stated, according to the Japan Mail, that a main object of the venture will be to remove from the minds of people in Europe and America the old-time notion that trade with Japan must be conducted by means of settlement, intervention and to show that direct transactions are possible. The steamer will be over five thousand tons. She will go round the coast cities of South America. This will occupy ten months, and will constitute the first trip. Upon its results will depend whether a second expedition is made.

A JUVENILE FEMALE THIEF

AND HER UNIQUE TRICK.

A most remarkable tale was unfolded at the Police Station this morning, which, while it depicts the extent to which juvenile depravity can go, also shows that some older heads are really the instructors, and therefore the responsible parties. In this case it was related that on the day in question a little Chinese girl of eight years of age, was returning from school when she was met and accompanied by another girl of fourteen years. The latter drew the smaller child into conversation, and then appeared to suddenly notice a pair of bangles which the latter was wearing, and admitted them very much. She then asked the simple little maiden to lend them to her, so that she might show them to a jeweller in order to get a pair made like them for herself. All unsuspecting of any trick, the little one took off her bangles and gave them to the bigger girl, who immediately disappeared. Her innocent victim waited some time, and finding her new acquaintance did not return, went home and related the little adventure to her mother. The latter then took the child to the Police Station and laid out information, with the result that a tour of inspection was made of the pawnshops and the bangles were found in one of those avenue establishments in Hollywood Road. The pawnbroker was interrogated and stated that the bangles were pawned by a girl answering to the description given by the dupe. He was warned to look out for the girl and if seen again to detain her and inform the police. This morning, the girl innocently walked into the same shop and on this occasion offered a silver watch in pawn. She was detained and the police sent for. It then appeared that, having pawned the bangles, she purchased the silver watch, but, evidently growing tired of her latest purchase, sought to pawn that too. Unfortunately for herself she chose the same shop as that in which she had pawned the bangles, and that led to her undoing. The young thief was arrested, and will, in due course, enlighten the Magistrate as to her modus vivendi.

H.E. CHOW FU

AND THE VERNACULAR PAPERS.

[From a Correspondent.]

Canton, 13th December.
H.E. Chow Fu has been a close reader of the vernacular papers published in Southern China and Hongkong, ever since he arrived in Canton. His studies of the contents of Hongkong vernacular papers have now led H.E. to prohibit their importation into Canton, as he finds that some of the latter are writing in very strong terms against the Cantonese Government. With this end in view H.E. Chow Fu has sent despatches to the Postal Commissioner and the Commissioner of Customs at Canton in which H.E. stated that he thought it would be better to stop their admission into Canton, and H.E. requested those officials to keep a very sharp lookout against their entry. H.E. furthermore said that anyone bringing the proscribed papers into Canton through the private postal bags, such as the Hung An Kee, or other firms, should be arrested and heavily fined. If the persons so fined were unable or unwilling to pay the fines imposed they must be imprisoned as an alternative. H.E. Chow Fu urgently asked the Commissioners mentioned to co-operate with him in stopping the importation of the forbidden journals.

NEW POSTAL CHARGE.

On and from the 1st January, 1907, all the Chinese papers in Canton will have to pay a fee of a cash each paper which they deliver to their subscribers by means of their own messengers. For that reason, and to cover themselves, the papers in question have decided to charge their subscribers, from that date, an extra five cents monthly.

CANTON DAY BY DAY.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Canton, 13th December.

As a sequel to actions taken by the Central Government at Peking for the suppression of the opium evil, the local authorities have been, for some time past, making investigations as to the actual number of opium dips now established in Canton. Now the number is ascertained to be three hundred and seventy-nine. Henceforth opening of new establishments of this kind will be strictly prohibited and the authorities propose to gradually reduce the number of dips day by day.One of the employees of Hung An Kee, a local Agent for several Hongkong native papers, was arrested a short time ago, for bringing newspapers from Hongkong, on which no postage had been paid. The man was bailed out on a surety of $500 and is now reported that this man has been fined $4, for the offence.Yesterday, H.E. the Viceroy issued instructions to Admiral Li, to assemble all gunboats, Government patrol launches and others at Whampoa, for the purpose of having them examined by the German superintendent of the Kiangnan Dock, who is at present in Canton.FATAL ACCIDENT AT WEST POINT.

GODOWN COOLIE KILLED BY FALLING BAGS.

After being dead for nearly fifteen hours with thirty sacks of peas on top of him, each sack weighing about 130 catties, Leung Yan, a coolie, employed in the Po Yan Company's godown at West Point, after being missed for nearly a day, was found on the morning of the 11th instant. The matter, however, did not become known to the police until yesterday morning.
On the 10th instant the godown coolie was missed by his friends, and although a search was made he could not be found that night. The following morning, the 11th instant, while the missing coolie's whereabouts were being discussed by his fellow-workers, a sack opened No. 9 godown, which is situated at No. 177, Crown Road Road Central, to commence work, and discovered the missing coolie pinned down by a number of sacks, dead. He notified his 'classmen' of what he had discovered, and a number of coolies went to work to clear away the sacks. This being accomplished the coolie's remains were removed to the mortuary. The coolie, so it is asserted, went into the godown on the 10th to sweep the place.
While he was sweeping between the stacks, it is said a number of sacks collapsed, and fell on him, crushing him to death.

POLICING THE WEST RIVER.

The British Minister to Peking has proposed to the Waiwups that as steamers are frequently attacked by pirates on the West River thus causing obstruction to trade, the Inspector General of the Imperial Maritime Customs shall be ordered to instruct the Customs River Police to have a revenue cruiser to protect the traffic in that river. The Waiwups, considering that the West River is under the jurisdiction of the local officials and not that of the Maritime Customs, and has therefore ordered Viceroy Chow Fu to have special means of protection, the traffic in the West River and by compiling special regulations for that purpose to avoid any interference from local powers. Viceroy Chow Fu has placed steam launches in the West River to cruise and has replied to the Waiwups concerning his efforts to protect the traffic in that river.—The Shenpan.

JOHORE OPIUM FARM.

Some time ago it was reported that the tender of Messrs. Khoo Siew Jin and Khoo Sian Tan of $25,000 per annum for the coming lease of the Johore Opium and Spirit Farms had been accepted. This would now appear to be incorrect, as correspondence has passed between the Officials and parties interested, which tends to show that the Singapore Farmers, Messrs. Khaw Joo Choo and J. W.
Cashin with a tender of $27,500 are the successful tenderers. We must congratulate the Colonial and Johore Governments on the happy turn of events, as matters will proceed far more easily in respect to opium, with the same Farmers in charge of both Farms than would have been the case had the tenders of different Farmers been accepted. Congratulations are also due to Hon. Tan Jik Kim, Syed Abdul Kadir, and Mr. W. D. Barnes, Secretary for Chinese Affairs, on the successful result of their negotiations.—Straits Times.

MURDER AT KOWLOON DOCK.

MR. CRAIK FOULLY DONE TO DEATH.

REVENGE ALLEGED MOTIVE OF CRIME.

One of the most brutal and cold-blooded murders that has occurred in Hongkong for some time was perpetrated at Kowloon last night when Mr. J. R. Craik, chief clerk, employed by the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company, Limited, was foully done to death at his house, Dock Terrace, by some human fiend. Immediately the tragedy was reported to the police at Hung Hom Station the news was flashed across to Hongkong and by two o'clock this morning a gang of detectives, in charge of Chief Detective Inspector Hanson, had journeyed to Kowloon in search of the murderer. The Dock premises were closed up to ten o'clock this morning and no workman was permitted to leave the yard until the detectives had finished their work.According to a statement alleged to have been made to the police, by Mrs. Craik, the widow of the murdered man, a most extraordinary story is disclosed. It seems that about midnight yesterday Mrs. Craik, who was in bed, heard a strange noise being made in the ground floor of the house, and communicated this fact to her husband, who promptly got out of bed, lit a candle, and proceeded below to investigate.
We might mention here that the electric light in these houses are switched off each night at twelve o'clock. In less than a minute after her husband went below, Mrs. Craik heard a terrible noise in the passage that leads to the front door of the house, and fearing that something was wrong yelled for assistance. At the same time she armed herself with a poker and started to join her husband below. When she got to the first landing at the turn of the staircase Mrs. Craik saw a Chinaman rushing up the staircase. "You go back upstairs," the man was alleged to have said to the lady, "or else I will kill you as I have done your husband." That Mrs. Craik paid no heed to the threat is shown by the fact that she drove the murderer back with the poker, and hearing the sound of footsteps outside he took to his heels and vanished through the back door. Mrs. Craik went down and found her husband lying in the passage way, near the front door, in a terribly hacked condition. There were numerous wounds on his head, face and nose and a large gash on the left side of the throat. She called to him, but received no reply, for he was already dead, the result of his injuries. By this time the neighbours, hearing the noise, rushed into the house, and learning the facts of the case, reported the matter to the police, who lost no time in going to the scene. When the Hongkong detectives arrived they found a brand new chopper, which was stained with blood, in the passage way. They searched the house for a clue and discovered by the traces of blood that the murderer after leaving Mrs. Craik had made for the back of the house and made his exit through a window. The window bore the fingerprints of the murderer. From there, we understand, the murderer made for the boiler shop and knowing that he would in all probability meet a policeman there he diverted his course to the sea wall, where, it is presumed a sampan was waiting for him, in which he made off.Mr. Craik, it appears, while going downstairs holding a lighted candle, was tackled straightaway by his murderer who was laying in wait for him. As soon as he descended the staircase a handful of pepper was thrown into his face and the villainous assassin set to work at once on his cowardly work.What was the cause of the murder is not known at present, but what is known is that the murderer, whoever he may be, was known to the house, for the dog that was in the house at the time and which the murderer must have passed while in the house never stirred. There is a rumour about to the effect that robbery was the prime motive for the crime, but that theory can easily be upset, because if robbery was contemplated it would not have been necessary for the robber to make a noise, and disturb the household, as in the present case. If robbery was meant the man could have taken what he wanted out of the drawing room and have left without anyone being the wiser. There is another theory, and a most probable one, and that is revenge. In connection with this theory it is hinted that the Triad Society is as much to blame for Mr. Craik's death as the murderer himself. Mr. Craik, so it is alleged, was the means of imprisoning several Chinese employees who were caught stealing the Company's metal. Mrs. Craik, we are informed, was not many months ago fined at the Police Court for, it is alleged, assaulting a Hakka "boy." This and other things, so says rumour, has set the coolies, many of whom are members of the Triad Society, at work, and in order to get even they murdered the man.The police are working hard on the matter and it is to be hoped that their search will be fruitful.Mr. John R. Craik was thirty-nine years of age. He came to Hongkong twenty-seven years ago, and later joined the police force here. He rose to the rank of lance-sergeant.
In 1896 he resigned the police and obtained a position as clerk at the Cosmopolitan Dock.
He was not long after that transferred to the Kowloon Dock in the same capacity. His promotion came quickly until he was made chief clerk. He leaves a widow and 4 children.In consequence of this murder, we learn, as we were going to press, that the employees of the Dock are drawing up a petition to the directors, asking to be allowed the privilege of extending the lighting of the premises to a later hour instead of up to midnight as is the case at present.In the partnership issue before his Honour the Chief Justice this afternoon, the jury at 4.50 p.m. returned their verdict in which they said that they considered that sufficient evidence had not been produced to demonstrate that the defendant Li Cheung Kin was a partner.

The Education Bill.

LONDON, 12th December.
The House of Commons, by 317 to 89, has adopted Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's resolution to deal with the House of Lords' amendments in bloc in a conciliatory tone.

The recent speeches of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, and Mr. Asquith, it is believed, indicate the possibility of a compromise.

The Premier conferred with the Archbishop of Canterbury at Lambeth Palace yesterday.

Church and State in France.

M. Clemenceau explained in the Chamber that Monsignor Montagnini was expelled from the country because he handed to certain French priests instructions from a foreigner, viz. the Pope, to disobey the laws of France. If the Church wanted war it could have it; but it could be avoided by conforming to the law. Several Archbishops and Bishops have already received notice to quit residence.

The German Budget.

The German Budget provides for a loan of £13,000,000 to cover extraordinary army and navy requirements.

THE FLEET AT SINGAPORE.

SQUADRON ARRIVES.

Shortly after eight o'clock yesterday morning, reports the Singapore Free Press of 7th inst., four British warships were signalled from the eastward and at 9 o'clock they steamed in column and anchored in the main-of-war anchorage. The vessels proved to be the King Alfred, Dudman, Monmouth, and Astraea, the former flying the admiral's flag. Captain Grover, an Intelligence Officer, went off to the vessels immediately they anchored. As stated in yesterday's issue the squadron remains here till the 15th, in the interim the cruiser of the County class visiting Malacca, Port Swettenham, the Dindings and Tennant. The other three ships visit Batavia from where the Diadem will be detached to visit several Dutch ports, whilst the Astraea goes to Christmas Island and the Cocos Islands. The conference of the "three Admirals" does not take place till well into January.

The Fleet has just come down from Manila, where it arrived on Nov. 27th. At the time the American squadron of cruisers was also lying off Manila and the men of the two fleets on liberty fraternised to a warm extent, according to the Manila papers. "Trolley parties" which seem to be tramway picnics with sometimes as many as six tramcars each with cigars and a keg of beer on the platform were a great feature, and the Manila Orpheum was practically taken charge of by the general staff. The American men of war men apparently divided up the programme, for the Pennsylvania ran the Music Hall, show and the free kegs of beer. The American sailors spoke warmly of the time they had in Gibraltar and determined to make acquaintance with Admiral Moore's men.

THE JAPANESE BUDGET.

ECONOMICAL ESTIMATES.

In framing the Budget for next year Marquis Saito and Dr. Sakuma, Minister for Finance, are studiously avoiding any policy involving the use of bonds or increase of taxation. The course of the Government, it is stated, is backed by Count Inouye, who is keenly interested in the financial question. The Count advocates the meeting of a deficit next year by drawing a surplus for the present year, but holds that this policy should not be persisted in, but be discontinued after next year. Financial affairs should then be balanced by effecting sweeping administrative reforms and largely curtailing national expenditure, or by issuing more bonds.

The Ministry is said to disagree with this view, and Marquis Saito is considerably perplexed in drawing up his speech to be delivered in the coming session of the Diet, defining Japan's future financial policy.

We, Japan Chronicle, learn from vernacular contemporaries that the difference between the Finance Department and the War Office on the Army Estimates has been compromised, both sides having agreed to reconsider their views. The War Office has formulated a new scheme for the extension of the Army, which it is believed will be submitted to the decision of the Council of the Elder-Statesmen.

The Finance Minister is stated to have addressed a representation to the Premier, opposing the new scheme proposed by the War Office.

CHINESE MANDARIN IN SINGAPORE.

MONEY WANTED FOR THE KWANGTUNG RAILWAY.

The Singapore Free Press of 7th inst. says:—On Tuesday night the Chinese Chamber of Commerce entertained Mandarin Chen Pan Shou who has come to Singapore to solicit local Chinese to invest money in the new railway in Kwangtung Province to dinner at the rooms of the Chamber. Representatives of all the clans from the Province—Cantonese, Teochiu, Khek and Hailam—were at the banquet, and the Mandarin made a lengthy speech asking the clans from the Province to remember they were all Chinamen, and to take shares in an undertaking which was to benefit their motherland. The guests applauded the speech enthusiastically, and many wealthy men present promised to invest money in the new railway.

ANOTHER ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

COLD WATER PREVENTS SELF-DESTRUCTION.

There would appear to be somewhat of an epidemic of suiciding amongst the Chinese women just now. Last evening we recorded a case of a young widow who attempted to take her life owing to her love affairs not running smoothly; to-day money is the cause of another similar attempt being made by a Chinese married woman. It would appear that the young woman, named Kong Yau, was seen by a lukung on duty near No. 2 Police Station, Wanchai, at 10 o'clock last night to go on to the beach, and walk towards the Corinthian Yacht Club, and on arriving in front of it to walk into the water, wherein she advanced until she was submerged up to her neck. Seeing this, and suspecting that something was wrong the lukung followed her into the water, with the intention of bringing her back to the shore. In the meantime the woman would have either to have changed her mind or found the water too cold to remain in, for she suddenly turned round and made for the shore. The lukung followed, and on arriving on terra firma took charge of the would-be suicide, and lodged her in No. 2 Police Station for the night. This morning, Inspector Gourlay, in charge of that district, placed the woman before Mr. T. Sercombe Smith, at the Magistracy, where she admitted the attempted suicide, and was ordered to find security in the sum of $50 to be of good behaviour and keep the peace for six months. She had a very pitiful story to tell in explanation of her foolish intention. Her husband, she said, was ill and had been entirely unfit to work, and as she herself got ill and also became unable to support herself on that account, they were left quite without any means of subsistence. Then the unfortunate woman borrowed some clothing and jewellery from her friends, and pawned them to find means to support herself and her sick husband. Finding herself later unable to obtain the funds to redeem the borrowed and pawned articles she thought it was better for her to end her life, and get rid of her troubles, only changing her mind at the very last moment.

THE SHANGHAI STOCK MARKET.

A "Subscriber" writes to the N. C. D. News under date the 7th inst.:—On Wednesday, the 7th inst., I sold through a recognized broker, a member of the Stock Exchange, Shanghai Dock and Engineering Co's shares for December settlement at Tls. 105—bond side transaction. On the same day cash transactions, which were published in the "Mercury," took place at 102 and 103. In your share report for the day named, no mention whatever was made of any business having been done in "Docks"; this morning's paper, however, contains a report of cash business at 103½. Can it be that the Bulls are at work? Or shall we continue to blame Twentyman for the fluctuations in "Docks"? I may mention, parenthetically, that my broker was willing to sell me "Docks" for May, 1907, at 103. At the time I sold for 105 for December! Comment is quite unnecessary. Many of your subscribers rely on your Share Market Report for information which ought to be fairly correct; but what reliance can be placed on the quotations of a Stock Exchange that seemingly suppresses the publication of real transactions as it may suit the convenience of its members?

CENTRAL CHINA FAMINE.

THE WORK OF ORGANIZATION.

The N. C. D. News of 8th inst. says:—Telegrams were sent yesterday afternoon to all the missionaries in the famine-stricken area asking them to telegraph down for the information of the Relief Committee and the public certain facts in connexion with the districts. The missionaries are asked to state as nearly as possible how many sufferers are likely to need relief and for how long; also the conditions of the crops and the prospects of new planting; the Imperial Chinese Telegraph Administration has consented to send these and the reply telegrams free of charge.

By courtesy of the Great Northern Telegraph Company free telegrams of appeal were also dispatched to the Mayors of Paris and Berlin. The telegrams to London quoted in our yesterday's issue were sent free of charge by the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company and those to America by the Commercial Pacific Telegraph Company.

The Committee has also received the promise of a very useful assistance from the Chinese Imperial Post Office, through M. Galemberg, the Postmaster at Shanghai. Letters and circulars relating to the Famine Relief will be rankled for delivery in Shanghai and it is hoped that the concession will also be extended to include places in the interior.

Mr. W. F. Inglis of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. and Mr. H. W. Robertson of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire have joined the Executive Committee.

The Roman Catholic Missionaries in North Kiangsu were among the first to draw the attention of foreigners to the alarming condition of the populace there. They have continued to send down to Shanghai news of the devastation caused by the famine and failure of the crops, and they have promised every cooperation in distributing relief. Mr. Montague Ede, Hon. Treasurer of the Committee, will meet Bishop Paris this morning for the arrangement of details.

Mr. E. S. Little, Chairman of the Executive Committee, left for Nanking by the I.C.S. Loongwe last night in order to interview Viceroy Tung Fang and discuss with His Excellency the best means of using such foreign funds as may be collected.

Arrangements are being made in Shanghai for a systematic canvass of Chinese residents as well as of foreigners on behalf of the fund.

WHAT THE CHINESE HAVE DONE.

Although foreigners have only now taken up the work of relief in earnest, the local Chinese officials and gentry have been concerned for some time about the distress and have given much practical aid already. Mr. Shen Tun-ho, who is one of the joint hon. secretaries of the fund with Dr. Gilbert Reid, yesterday gave some interesting facts to our representative. These statements speak for themselves and indicate that the Chinese regard the famine as a very bad one, far worse than those caused by the failures of crop which occur in some part of the Empire every year.

Two months ago, while "E. Chow Fu" was still Viceroy at Nanking, news of the distress was such that the Viceroy addressed the Throne and by Imperial Rescript Keping Tls. 100,000 were given by their Majesties for relief work. Later H. K. Tuan Fang, the present Viceroy, memorialized jointly with Governor Chen Kueiling of Kiangsu, asking that tribute rice to the amount for 100,000 or 150,000 piculs, destined for Peking, may be sold instead at Soochow and the proceeds devoted to relief. This has not yet been sanctioned, but if it is granted, as is likely, another Tls. 300,000 or Tls. 450,000, according to the amount sold, would be available. By order of Viceroy Chow Fu the Salt Commissioners at Yangchow have appropriated Tls. 100,000 from their revenue for relief. Official telegrams were also addressed by the Viceroy at Nanking to every Viceroy and Governor throughout the country. In response Viceroy Yuan Shih-kai has sent down Tls. 40,000 and the Governor of Shantung Tls. 10,000. Other amounts have been promised, but, confining the figures to sums already received, the official and provincial grants to date amount to Tls. 250,000.

Apart from the official grants other large sums have been contributed in response to an appeal by H. E. Sheng Kungpao, Treaty Commissioner at Shanghai, who issued a lengthy and very definite statement in Chinese concerning the distress a month ago. This statement has not received very lengthy attention in the native papers of Shanghai, and the argument has been used that the conditions of trade have been so poor here lately that an extensive appeal might not be adequately supported. That this is not the case, however, has been proved by the fact that with very little honing a Committee of Chinese has raised in Shanghai alone Tls. 200,000, which has been sent already to the district for distribution. The Governor-General of Mukden, H. E. Chao Hsi-shan, has also sent Tls. 5,000 and the Governor of Shantung Tls. 5,000 supplementary to the grants from the provincial treasury already mentioned.

Speaking of the famine itself, Taotai Shen Tun-ho said that while it might not attain the proportions of the great Shanxi famine, which remains yet in the popular imagination as a period of horror, the acuteness of the distress in North Kiangsu was growing daily. A telegram from Yishuihien received yesterday stated that 4,000 refugees had arrived there from over the Hunan border, showing that the want had spread to that province also. The magistrate of the city had wired to the Governor at Soochow, fearing that grave disorders may break out among the starving people. The latest news received by H. E. Sheng Kungpao gave an estimate of a million people actually starving in the three prefectures of Huaihsien, Haichow and Hsichowfu. From Suchien came reports that there had been cases even of cannibalism. Throughout the area of North Kiangsu many square miles were still under water, and where the floods had subsided the fields were frequently too wet to plant with fresh seeds. For neglecting to report the extent of the distress to his superiors, Taotai Ting Tao-yun has been summarily dismissed from his post at Huaihsien and Taotai Yang Wenling has been appointed to fill the post.

REFUGEES AT WOOSUNG.

The following is an interesting letter from Woosung, received by Mr. H. E. Hobson, Commissioner of Customs, and relating to the refugees at Woosung:—

Dear Sir,—Beggars—no, refugees, have appeared at Woosung. Ten days ago, I accidentally dropped into a group of some 50 of them—the queerest looking characters I ever saw; men, women and children almost in a state of nudity. The women, beyond a few rags which they wrapped around their loins and the babies they held to their stomachs, as much to allay the gnawings of hunger in their empty bellies as to give them warmth, had actually no clothing. Their fairly healthy looking faces and clean fair naked limbs showed at once that they were not professional beggars but poor peasant people who had been driven by sheer want from their homes. They wandered through the place in a quiet dazed manner and did not even solicit charity. Some of them made a snatch at some burnt rice spread out on a mat paring in the sun, but were promptly hooted off by the owners; the native here showing them scant mercy. Speaking to some of them, I inquired where they came from. Honam, they replied. What have you done with your clothing? Sold them for food! How long have you been on the road? "San Shih P'ai tien," about 30 days. All this in nice, distinct Mandarin showing they were not natives of Kiangsu, I asked up all the cash I could lay my hands on in a neighbouring tea shop and gave it to them, for which they thanked me in an earnest modest manner, so foreign to the ordinary "Huntee".

Next day I saw another batch in pretty much the same condition, meandering about in the same listless manner. (In the afternoon, on inquiring for them and those of yesterday, I was told the local magistrate had given them some food, a few cash and sent them across to Kingpeh in a junk.

Excuse me writing at such length on this subject, but it strikes me that whatever your committee intend doing they should do it as promptly and as quickly as their means will permit. The districts affected are densely populated; the famine, by what these informants told me, extending well into Honan as well as beyond the confines of Shantung. Yours respectfully,

ROBT. MACGREGOR.

JAPANESE STEAMSHIP SERVICES.

INCREASING FOREIGN CARRYING TRADE.

The foreign services of Japanese steamers owned by private individuals are steadily increasing, and at present about a dozen of such steamers are plying between the various ports in the direction of Hongkong, Java, and the South Seas. The "Shinshu-maru," owned by Mr. Kishimoto, the "Takao-maru," owned by Mr. Hiroshi, and the "Hokuto-maru," the property of Mr. Ito, are among the number trading to the south. Mr. Fujino has opened a service to Rangoon, with the "Hanku-maru," a steamer of 5,300 tons. Some other steamship owners have under consideration a scheme to open a regular service to Singapore. As regards services to America, two or three steamers were recently sent with migrants, but the "Goto-maru," owned by Mr. Hiroshi, which left Japan for Portland, was the first cargo boat among the private steamers to proceed to America. Mr. Hiroshi is preparing to dispatch the "Edo-maru" for Seattle with a cargo of sulphur and general merchandise. The steamer is expected to sail from Kobe on the 10th instant, to be followed by the "Yamato-maru." The "Fukushima," owned by Mr. Ukon, was leaving Muretan on about the 10th instant for San Francisco with a cargo of railway sleepers and sulphur. The two last-named steamers are to bring back flour.—Japan Chronicle.

COMMERCIAL.

YARN MARKET.

In their report dated 14th inst., Messrs. Phiroosha P. Petit & Co. write:—Our last circular was dated the 30th ult.

The yarn market, during the whole of the past fortnight, without being unduly pessimistic, presents one continued feature of gloom and depression, and prices, in consequence, ruled rather weaker. The reason for such a poor state of affairs is found in the fact of the instability, generally speaking, of the Chinese yarn merchants. Transactions, as must be expected, were considerably restricted and just a very moderate business of only 700 bales was reported in the market during the earlier part of the fortnight under review.

Then came a sudden and unwelcome crash in the market. One of the largest firms of Chinese yarn dealers, owing to the heavy drop in the prices of yarn of the dearly-purchased stock he had still to clear, has had to seek shelter in the Insolvent Court in view of his heavy liabilities. By this failure the very largest quantity of uncleaned stock contracted for by any native buyer will be thrown back on first hands. The amount being a by no means inconsiderable one seriously aggravates the unsatisfactory condition of the market.

The news of this latest failure caused quite a panic amongst yarn merchants in the Colony. Importers are thus non-plussed and at a loss to discover any safe guidance to lead them along the tortuous course created by a condition wholly unprecedented in the entire history of the yarn trade in Hongkong. It is no exaggeration when it is asserted that the staggering blow dealt upon dealers and merchants alike finds no parallel in the past. Through this most recent collapse commodities and importing firms will have to bear rather heavy losses. The amount cannot, even approximately, be determined at time of writing.

Some four new firms of Chinese dealers have been called into existence to replace the defunct firms that have been drawn into the vortex of the financial crisis. It is our pleasure to note among the newcomers some names of good standing, commercial integrity and extensive resources. These firms are a beginning to feel their way to a limiting business to one of very slender character only, buying from hand to mouth. In the case of some selected threads buyers have been found, but only in very small lots.

It is surmised, though we should not care to place ourselves in the position of false prophets, that when the major portion of the stock now in second hands is exhausted (big lots more finding their way back into first hands) a more cheerful outlook is bound to present itself. This forecast is prompted by the belief that consumptions must proceed along the lines of previous years, more or less, and with a renewed demand prices will be sure to advance, unless checked by an adverse course of Exchange, resulting in good business which might be anticipated after the Chinese New Year, but not before, since rather early in the winter some of the Northern ports are already blocked by ice.

No. 700.—Only selected threads changed hands at quotations for immediate requirements only.

No. 165.—A very trifling business is reported. No. 125.—Totally neglected. No. 102.—Heavy drop in prices induced very trifling sales.

No. 8 and 6.—Totally neglected. The Market closes quiet. Sales during the past fortnight—565 bales of No. 105, in all about 1,745 bales. Arrivals.—Per steamers Catherin & Ajgar and Namsang (from Calcutta), and steamers Bombay & Capri (from Bombay), of about 10,000 bales for this port and about 14,000 for Shanghai.

Shipments.—About 2,000 bales. Unsold Stock.—About 118,000 bales. Local Yarn.—Sales of about 100 bales at $82 per bale.

Japanese Yarn.—Sales of about 100 bales at $138 per bale. Exchange.—We quote, to-day, as under:—India T.T. at Rs. 165½ per cent. Demand " " 165½ London T.T. " Sh. 2.12½/166—$ Demand " " 2.12½/166—$ Shanghai " " Tls. 72½/$100 Silver " " 31½d. per oz.

PASSENGER SERVICE.

BY the new steamers "RHEINLAND," "HAMBURG," and "HOHENSTAUFEN." These steamers offer to the public the highest comfort yet attained in ocean travelling. They are especially built for the tropics with very large well ventilated cabins, amply lighted throughout by electricity, fans provided in each cabin. The berths are not arranged one above the other as it has been the fashion hitherto, but the staterooms closely resemble ordinary sleeping rooms on shore, the berths standing like beds at either side of the cabins. As a novelty, a number of cabins are provided for single passengers. These steamers call at NAPLES and PLYMOUTH. In addition to the above steamers, the s.s. "SILESIA" and "SCANDIA" carry first class passengers. Return Tickets issued at reduced Rates, through tickets issued to NEW YORK, via NAPLES, SOUTHAMPTON, and HAMBURG.
